

Hinsley Zoom: Handout - Saturday 13th March 2021

Gospel Reading:

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever refuses to believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's one and only Son.

John 3: 16-18

Chant: Slowly blooms the rose within.

Chapter Four -The Wanderings of the Imagination

From Fr Thomas Keating 2006 (20th Anniversary Edition), Open Mind Open Heart London, Bloomsbury Publishing, pp 43 - 48

The great battle as they go by. (43)

Suppose you are conversing into insignificance. (43-44)

The ability to around you. (44)

So it is interior dialogue .(45)

To sum up what interior silence is. (46)

During the entire course Just start over. (46)

A second kind of thought surrendering to Him (46-47)

Our consciousness in pure faith (47)

When in centering prayer it is a thought. (48)

Unity Prayer

May God heal all divisions -- those within my own mind, heart, soul and body, and those between all people and groups -- that we may be one Body in Christ, unified in every way and on every level, and thus manifest the Living Christ by our very lives. Amen."
